Let's Start!

Let's try this new Mexican place. It's very popular ... We better book early!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information, involving apologies, thanks, suggestions and invitations in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about social occasions.
- I can make a dinner reservation.
- I can make and respond to requests.

Ask your partner:

- Where do you want to take your friends for a special occasion?
- Where would you like your friends to take you?

Let's Explore!

Sally calls El Taco Loco about the reservation. Are they booked up? Let's find out!

* When a restaurant is "booked up", there is no room left. You can't make a reservation.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Miguel: El Taco Loco. This is Miguel speaking. How may I help you?
Sally: Good evening. I would like to book a table for tomorrow evening.
Miguel: For how many people?
Sally: Four, please.
Miguel: Just a moment. Hmm ... I'm very sorry, but we are completely booked for dinner tomorrow.
Sally: Ok ... how about Sunday?
Miguel: We are closed on Sundays, I'm afraid.
Sally: You're closed?! This is very bad! Sunday is our last chance to celebrate with my friend.
Miguel: Well, I could put your name on the waiting list.
Sally: Why would I do that?
Miguel: In case there is a cancellation, I could call you back.
Sally: Thanks, but I would like to make sure we have a table.
Miguel: I understand. We apologize for the inconvenience.
Sally: That's fine. Thanks anyway.

Let's Practice!

Did you understand the dialogue? Let's find out!

Instructions: Select all the correct answers.

1. Why does Sally call Miguel?

- ☐ She would like to book a table for tomorrow.
- ☐ She would like to book a table for next week.
- ☐ She would like to book a table for five people.
- ☐ She would like to book a table for four people.

2. Which sentences are true about the restaurant?

- ☐ It is completely booked for dinner tomorrow.
- ☐ It is closed on Saturdays.
- ☐ It is closed today.
- ☐ It is closed on Sundays.

Let's Practice!

There is a problem with the restaurant. The waiter apologizes for the inconvenience.

Instructions: Organize the mystery sentences. Write each word in the correct order.

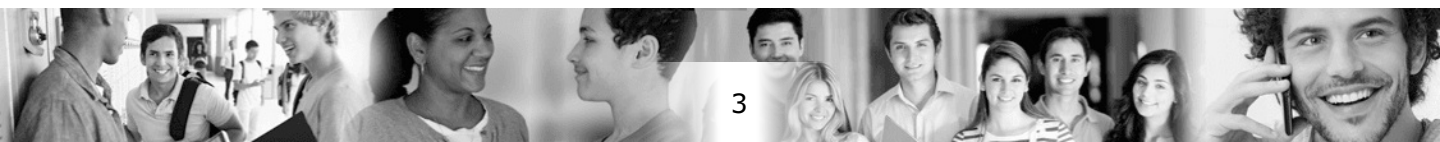

1. I/evening./for/tomorrow/book/a/would/like/to/table

2. many/people?/For/how

3. five/please./For/people,

4. very/booked./I'm/sorry,/we/completely/but/are

Learning Points

Making Dinner Reservations

When you make a dinner reservation, you use formal words and expressions. You can use verbs with infinitives such as like to or want to.

When you answer people's requests, it is important to reply in a polite way.

Making a Reservation	Responding to Requests
I would like to book a table. I would like to make a reservation. Do you have room for 5 people tomorrow? Could we book a table for Sunday?	Certainly, Sir/Madam. For how many people? Absolutely. Would you like to make a reservation? I'm very sorry, we are closed on Sundays.

Examples:

• Ann: I would like to book a table for tomorrow.

Waiter: Certainly. For how many people?

Ann: Four people, please.

Waiter: Very well. May I have your name for the reservation, please?
