Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: Sally is getting excited! Can you guess why?

Learning Outcome

Accurately explain information about interests, hobbies, and preferences in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can say and use the controlled ur sound.
- I can say simple sentences.
- I can identify key information in a short audio.

Ask your partner:

- Which places have you visited on holiday?
- What kind of things do you like to do when you are on holiday?

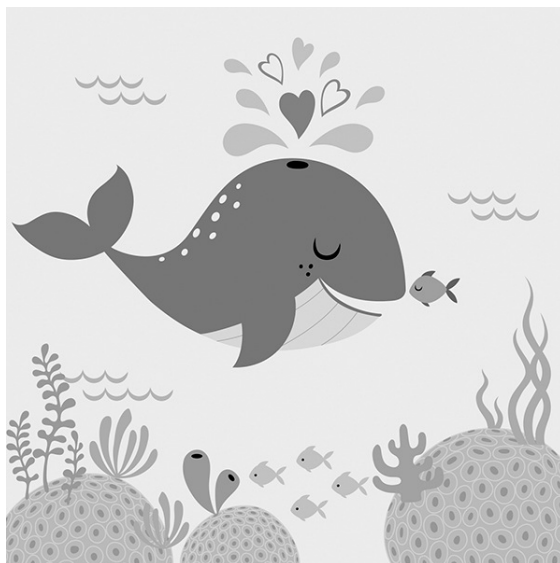

Let's Explore!

Sally is writing her last blog before her big trip. What is she looking forward to?

* "To look forward to" means to be excited about something that is coming in the future.

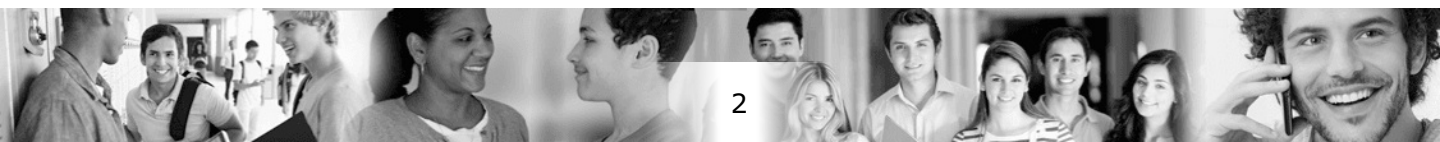

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally's Suitcase is off to see the world! I just purchased my ticket. I am excited about about it. My flight leaves early Saturday morning after the school term. First stop, Paris! I'm tired of the snow. I can't wait to go up the Eiffel Tower and walk down the Champs-Élysées. I want to surf in the ocean and swim with the turtles, drink cappuccino in Italy, and eat tacos in Mexico. I miss my friends already. We spend a lot of time together. I need to keep in touch with them by e-mail and text.

There is also Meenee, my cat. It is my friend Peter's turn to look after him. He is picking him up tomorrow.

My next blog is from Paris. Wish me luck!

Let's Practice!

Simple Sentences

A simple sentence is a sentence with a subject and a verb. Sometimes it will also have an object.

A simple sentence:

- is made from a group of words that express an idea
- always starts with a capital letter and finishes with a period (.)
- can be very short or very long
- always has a subject and a verb
- the subject goes in front of the verb
- can have more one noun or more as the subject and can also have adjectives, adverbs, and prepositions which give more information

Simple Past tense verbs can be regular or irregular.

Regular verbs end in -ed or -ied.

Irregular verbs change in different ways.

For questions in the past, you use the auxiliary did followed by the verb in the base form, like Did you ask ... ?

Did is the past form of to do.

Examples:

- Sally went to the movies.
- I just purchased my ticket.
- I went to the airport.

The "ur" sound

If a vowel is followed by an r, the sound of the vowel changes. This vowel sound is called an r-controlled vowel.

The "er", "ir", and "ur" combinations make the same er sound.

The r-controlled vowel can be spelled 4 different ways.

For example:

ur as in burger

ir as in first

ear as in earth

er as in person
