Let's Start!

Time to get the bill ... Who's paying? How much is the tip?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about food, eating and meals in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can thank people and respond to thanks.
- I can make and respond to requests.
- I can talk about food at a restaurant.

Ask your partner:

- How do you thank the waiter or waitress if the service was good?
- Do people usually leave a tip? How much is it?

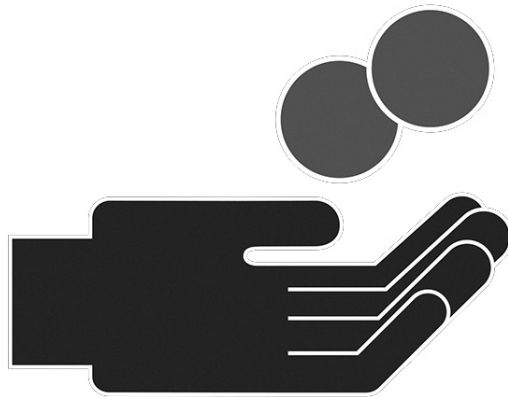

Let's Explore!

Vanessa and her friends had a great dinner! Time to get the bill! Are they all set?

* When you are "all set", you are ready to do something.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Vanessa: That was a great dinner guys!
Sally: I'm glad you liked it!
Vanessa: It was delicious! The service was excellent.
Peter: The waitress was nice too ...
Vanessa: Ok, Peter ... we know ... shall we get the bill?
Sally: Here's a waiter. Excuse me, could we have the bill, please?
Waiter: Right away, Miss.
Sally: Hmm ... $80 ... Do you want to split the bill?
Peter: Don't worry guys. It's on me.
Vanessa: Are you sure?
Peter: Yes. You can take care of the tip.
Sally: How much should we tip her?
Peter: I don't know ... 20%? It was a good meal.
Vanessa: Thanks a lot guys. You're the best.
Waiter: Are you all set?
Peter: Yes, thank you. Do you accept credit?
Waiter: Certainly, Sir.

Let's Practice!

Everyone is happy! What do they say?

Instructions: Draw a line from the first part of the statement on the left to the second part on the right.

Learning Points

Tipping Etiquette

If you are happy with the service at a restaurant, hotel or bar, you tip the person who served you.

A tip is an amount of money that you give after you have paid the bill. In North America, it is common to tip a waiter or waitress 15 - 20% for good service.

If you pay cash, you use an expression like "Keep the change" if you want to give a tip and do not need any money back after paying your bill.

Examples:

• Bill: Could I get the bill, please?

Waiter: Certainly. Here it is. It's $8.50.

Bill: Thank you. Here's $10. You can keep the change!

Modal Verbs for Requests

You use the modal verbs can and could to make polite requests in a restaurant.

Modal Verb	Polite Request
can	Can we split the bill, please? Can you pass me that? could	Excuse me, could we have the bill, please? Could I pay with credit?
