Let's Start!

This restaurant looks nice! Should we sit at the bar?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information, involving apologies, thanks, suggestions and invitations in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about food.
- I can make a dinner reservation.
- I can make and respond to requests.

Ask your partner:

- Where do you like to sit in a restaurant?
- Do you like to sit somewhere quiet?
- Do you prefer loud places?

Let's Explore!

A party of four under the name Smith? At the bar or by the window? Let's find out!

* When you make a reservation at a restaurant, the table is "under" your name.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Peter: Hello? Is this La Carnita Restaurant?
Sofia: Yes. My name is Sofia. How may I be of service?
Peter: I would like to book a table.
Sofia: When would you like the reservation for?
Peter: For Friday, if possible.
Sofia: Hmm ... tomorrow ... let me see ... I have a few tables.
Peter: Great!
Sofia: Would you like a table by the window?
Peter: Could we sit at the bar first? I love to watch the bartenders!
Sofia: Absolutely. Is there anything else I could do for you?
Peter: Yes. It is a farewell dinner. We would like a nice cake.
Sofia: Certainly. For how many people?
Peter: Four, please. My name is Peter Smith.
Sofia: Very well, Sir. Party of four under the name Smith.
Peter: Thank you!
Sofia: You're very welcome, Sir.

Let's Practice!

What is the special occasion? Do you remember?

Instructions: Draw a line from the first part of the statement on the left to the second part on the right.

- | | |
|------------------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1. Visitor: I would like to | a. farewell dinner. |
| 2. Visitor: We would like | b. few tables. |
| 3. Host: I have a | c. under the name Smith. |
| 4. Visitor: It is a | d. book a table. |
| 5. Host: Party of four | e. For how many people? |
| 6. Host: Certainly. | f. a nice cake. |

Let's Practice!

Let's practice speaking! What are Peter's requests?

Instructions: Find and fix the mistake. Each sentence has 1 mistake.

1. Could we sit at the bar first? I love to watch the barristers.
2. Absolute! Is there anything else I could do for you?
3. Yes. It is a welfare dinner. We would like a nice cake.
4. Certain. For how many people?
5. Floor, please. My name is Peter Smith.
6. You're very welcoming, Sir.

Extension Activity

Learning Points

Formal vs. Informal Language

You use formal words and expressions in some situations, like making reservations or polite requests at a restaurant. You can use modals of request in these situations.

You respond to formal requests in a polite way. If you do not know the person's name, you say Sir, Madam, or Miss.

You use informal or casual words and expressions when you speak to your friends or family.

Remember to be polite!

	Formal	Informal
Making Requests	Could I ... ? May I ... ? Would you like to ... ? Excuse me ... ?	Can I/you ... ? Do you want to ... ?
Responding to Requests	Certainly, Sir/Madam. Absolutely. You are very welcome.	Sure. No problem. You're welcome.

Examples:

• Ann: Hey, can you send the invitations, please?

Bob: Sure, Ann. No problem.

• Ann: Excuse me, could I sit by the bar?

Waiter: Certainly, Miss. This way, please.
