

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

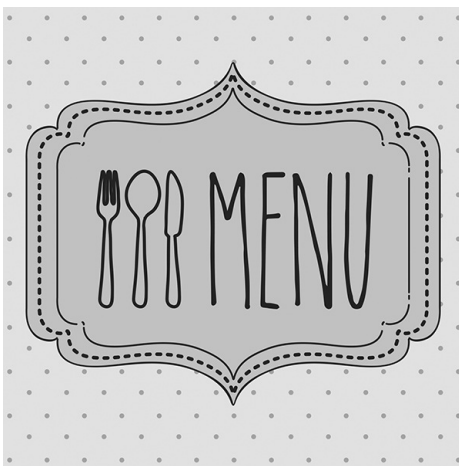

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Everything looks good ... What do you call this appetizer? Let's have a look at the menu!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about food, eating and meals in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about food at a restaurant.
- I can ask the word for an object.
- I can express a goal or a purpose.

Ask your partner:

- Do you like to try new things at a restaurant? Why or why not?
- Do you ask questions about dishes you don't know?
- What kind of dishes do you like to share with your friends?

Let's Explore!

Vanessa is happy! All her friends are here. Let's get the party started!

* To "get something started" means to begin to do something.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Vanessa: Thanks for organizing this, guys! This place looks great!
John: I hope the food tastes good, too ...
Peter: Don't worry about it. Here, have a look at the menu!
John: Wow ... so many dishes to try!
Sally: I have an idea. We could order different things and share them!
Vanessa: Yes! I want to taste many dishes!
Peter: Let's read the menu!
John: What's the name of that appetizer I like?
Sally: Nachos?
John: Yes! We need to get that!
Peter: We should save room for the main course too!
Vanessa: I hope they have vegetarian options for you, Sally!
Sally: Peter checked for me! What do you call those things again?
Peter: Cheese tacos. They are a must-have.
John: Shall we start with a drink? What do you call that cocktail ...
Peter: Margarita? Excellent idea.

Let's Practice!

Did you understand the dialogue? Let's find out!

Instructions: Select the correct answer.

1. John says:

- a. So many dishes to trying!
- b. So many dishes to try!
- c. So many dishes try!

3. Peter says:

- a. We have to save room for the main course too!
- b. We should to save room for the main course too!
- c. We have save room for the main course too!

2. Vanessa wants ...

- a. to protest many dishes.
- b. to state many dishes.
- c. to taste many dishes.

Let's Practice!

Let's practice speaking! Do you have questions about the menu?

Instructions: Read the sentences. Fill in the blank with the missing word. Use: What's the name, What do you call, must-have, What do you call.

1. John: _____ of that appetizer I like?

2. Sally: _____ those things again?

3. Peter: Cheese tacos. They are a _____.

4. John: Shall we start with a drink? _____ that cocktail ...?

Extension Activity

What's on the menu?

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Go online. Visit the websites of 3 restaurants you know.
- Find 4 items from each restaurant.
- Put the information in the chart below.
- Share your information with the class.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I identify different sections in a menu.

☐ ☐

I understand a menu and fill in a chart.

☐ ☐

I talk about food.

☐ ☐

I use target words in real life situations.

☐ ☐

	Appetizer	Main Course	Drinks	Dessert
1
2
3

Target Words

- to taste (verb): to sample; to eat or drink a small amount e.g. I want to taste many dishes!
- to try (verb): to taste or sample something to see if you like it e.g. There are so many dishes I want to try!
- appetizer (noun): a dish at the beginning of a meal
e.g. Let's order a few appetizers to start.
- main course (noun): the main part of the meal
e.g. We have to keep some room for the main course!
- cocktail (noun): a mixed drink, usually before the meal e.g. What do you call that cocktail again? A margarita?
- must-have (noun): an item you must try
e.g. The fish tacos are a must-have here!

Learning Points

Understanding a Menu

It is important to understand a menu when you go to a restaurant. A menu has many items (types of dishes and drinks). Usually, the items are divided in different sections. Many restaurants offer set lunches or set dinners, which are a number of items you can eat for a fixed price.

If you prefer to order what you like, you use the expression à la carte.

Look at the chart below for a list of items on a menu. Here you have some nouns related to food.

Appetizers	Main course	Desserts	Drinks
salad nachos onion rings fries soup	pizza steak fish pasta tacos	cake ice cream fruit salad	water wine beer cocktails coffee

Examples:

• Ann: Let's have a look at the menu!

Bob: Yes! My goal is to try all the appetizers.

Ann: Ok. Let's share them. Leave room for dessert!

