Let's Start!

Surprise, surprise! What is it?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information, involving apologies, thanks, suggestions and invitations in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can show interest and surprise.
- I can talk about interests.
- I can talk about past experiences.

Ask your partner:

- Are you good at keeping secrets? Why or why not?
- When something important happens, do you tell all your friends?

Let's Explore!

Sally calls Vanessa. She has something surprising to reveal! What is it? Let's find out!

* You "reveal" something when you say something no one knew before.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Vanessa: Hello?
Sally: Hey Vanessa. How's it going?
Vanessa: It's all good. Last night was so much fun! Thanks again.
Sally: Sure. I wanted to see you one last time before we left.
Vanessa: We left? What do you mean?
Sally: Well ... I have something to tell you.
Vanessa: Ok? ... What is it?
Sally: I'm heading to Paris tomorrow. I bought a one-way ticket.
Vanessa: You did what? No return ticket?
Sally: Yeah ... I didn't want to tell anyone.
Vanessa: I didn't see that one coming ...
Sally: I want to enjoy the Parisian lifestyle: the culture, the movies ...
Vanessa: "Sally in the Old Continent" ... I need to read about it in your blog.
Sally: You bet! Hey, do you need help with packing?
Vanessa: I'm alright, thanks. You?
Sally: I need to start!
Vanessa: Are you kidding me?

Let's Practice!

What did Sally say? Is Vanessa surprised?

Instructions: Select the correct answer.

1. Where is Sally going?
 - a. She is heading to Mexico tomorrow.
 - b. She is heading to Paris tomorrow.
 - c. She is heading to Paris tonight.
2. Vanessa is surprised. She says:
 - a. I'm alright, thanks.
 - b. It's all good.
 - c. I didn't see that one coming.

Let's Practice!

Sally wants an interesting life. She doesn't want a return ticket!

Instructions: Read the sentences. Fill in the blank with the missing words. Use: You bet, Old Continent, culture, your blog, heading to, one-way.

1. I'm _____ Paris tomorrow.
2. I bought a _____ ticket.
3. I want to enjoy the Parisian lifestyle: the _____, the movies ...
4. "Sally in the _____"!
5. I need to read about it in _____.
6. _____!

Extension Activity

I have something to tell you! Let's play a game and see if you can win!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Think of three surprising or interesting things to tell a partner.
- 2 things are true. 1 thing is false.
- Your partner expresses surprise each time you say something.
- Ask your partner to guess which one is false.
- Change roles.

Learning Points

Showing Interest and Surprise

When someone tells you something you did not expect, you can show interest and surprise. You use expressions like Really? or That's interesting! You can change the tone of your voice to show that you are interested or surprised.

Showing Interest	Showing Surprise
And ... ? / Ok ... ?	Really?
What is it?	You did what??
That's interesting!	Are you kidding me?
You bet!	I didn't see that one coming!

Examples:

• Ann: I have something to tell you.

Bob: Ok ... ? What is it?

Ann: I bought a one-way ticket to London.

Bob: You did what?? I didn't see that one coming!

Learning Points

The Simple Past Tense

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about a finished event or a specific time in the past.

You can form the regular form of the Simple Past tense by adding -ed or -ied to the verb.

We use the auxiliary did to make negative and interrogative statements. Look at the chart.

Affirmative	Negative	Interrogative
You called me last night.	You didn't call me last night.	Did you call me last night?
She wanted a return ticket.	She didn't want a return ticket.	Did she want a return ticket?

Some verbs are irregular. Their Simple Past form doesn't end in -ed or -ied. Here are some examples:

Present Tense	Affirmative	Negative	Interrogative
see	I saw you at the station.	I didn't see you at the station.	Did I see you at the station?
bring	I brought my passport.	I didn't bring my passport.	Did I bring my passport?
buy	I bought a return ticket.	I didn't buy a return ticket.	Did I buy a return ticket?
